An effective approach for figuring out a value is to ship out a survey to your current customers. If these clients have already purchased an ebook from you, ask for their opinion by way of price. Do that by making a gross sales page for the new book, but don't include a price on that page. Instead, add quite a few hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a value to your ebook.

Another strategy is to check out prices by creating a number of duplicate gross sales pages with different prices on each page. Be certain that your gross sales copy is exactly the same on each page, and contains your selling-deal with sentence. Then figure out for every page the conversion ratio between guests to your web site and sales of your book. This may let you know what your optimum value is.
