Do this by creating a sales web page for the new book, but don't embrace a value on that page. As a substitute, add quite a lot of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a value to your ebook.

One other strategy is to check out prices by creating a variety of duplicate sales pages with completely different prices on each page. Be sure that your gross sales copy is exactly the similar on every web page, and consists of your selling-handle sentence. Then determine for every web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your web site and sales of your book. This may tell you what your optimum worth is.

In the end, if you happen to've written a e-book that solves a downside or presents a new technique, your book will usher in both site visitors and profits.
